IXL

The first published definition of the Cocktail appeared in an editorial response in The Balance and Columbian Repository of 1806.

"The Cocktail is a stimulating liquor, composed of spirits of any kind, sugar, water, and bitters."

It is this definition that we continue to use when referring to the 'ideal' cocktail today.

'I cook with wine, sometimes I even add it to the food.'

W.C.Fields

'I would prefer barley be fed to pigs than be used to turn men into swine'

Lady Jane Franklin

'I drink to make other people more interesting.'

Ernest Hemingway
